

Press Release

Happy Anniversary

Chaucer Consulting acquisition of ItemPlus

Chaucer Consulting has continued to maintain its focus on the Banking and Financial Services sector since our acquisition two years ago.

We continue to be a successful and highly regarded management consultancy that has been providing services to our blue chip clients in the Financial Services, Banking and Insurance business sectors for the last 17 years.

We believe that the addition of ItemPlus to Chaucer has provided significant benefit to our clients by making our service offering more valuable.

We continue to specialise in providing high end support and advice to major change programmes at cost effective prices. Our expertise covers:

- Cost Reduction
- Mergers, Acquisitions and Divestments
- Major change programmes – from strategy definition, through design (operations and IT) to programme and project management
- Business case / benefits management
- IS/IT strategy and management
- Strategy implementation and operations improvement
- Business transformation and business re-engineering

Please contact us today to discuss your exceptional challenges for 2009 and beyond and how Chaucer can provide quality support at the most advantageous fee rates.
